Jetro Establishes New Representative Office in Dusseldorf Strengthening its Presence in German Speaking Countries

Tel-Aviv, Israel, November 10, 2008 - Jetro Platforms, a leading vendor of server-based application delivery and virtualization software solutions today announced that it has signed a representative agreement with CMI GmbH, a German business development and sales firm based in Dusseldorf, Germany. CMI will now support Jetro's marketing, sales and distribution activities throughout German speaking countries. The agreement will enable Jetro to increase sales volume and penetrate additional markets in Germany, Austria and Switzerland while enhancing customer support services in the region.

"Jetro is an innovation leader and one of the dominant players in its market. We at CMI are proud to become their representatives in Germany, Austria and Switzerland," said Ilan Shekel, Founder and CEO of CMI GmbH. "With a population of over 120 million, German Speaking countries make up the largest homogeneous market in Western Europe. Since Jetro already enjoys a good reputation in this region, we are certain that our cooperation will be a fruitful one."

"As a long-time partner of Jetro solution for Germany, Austria and Switzerland, we look forward to joining forces with Jetro's new local representative, CMI, and to further expand our mutual businesses," said Henning Jasper, Managing Director, Vanquish GmbH, a Value Added Distributor focused on Server-Based-Computing.

"This is a great opportunity to locally support the growing demand for our products in Germany Austria and Switzerland," said Giora Shaked, CEO of Jetro Platforms. "Our localized presence through CMI will enable us to better serve existing partners and customers and introduce our products to new ones "
